

THE POSSIBILITY FOR EXPORTING THAI MANGOES TO
KUNMING, YUNNAN PROVINCE, P.R. CHINA

THONGJIT PONGPIAJUN

A THESIS SUBMITTED TO THE GRADUATE SCHOOL
IN PARTIAL FULFILLMENT OF THE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF
MASTER OF SCIENCE (AGRICULTURE)
IN AGRICULTURAL SYSTEMS

GRADUATE SCHOOL
CHIANG MAI UNIVERSITY

AUGUST 2000

THE POSSIBILITY FOR EXPORTING THAI MANGOES TO KUNMING, YUNNAN PROVINCE, P.R. CHINA

THONGJIT PONGPIAJUN

THIS THESIS HAS BEEN APPROVED
TO BE A PARTIAL FULFILLMENT OF THE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF SCIENCE (AGRICULTURE)
IN AGRICULTURAL SYSTEM

EXAMINING COMMITTEE

Aree Wiboonpongse CHAIRMAN

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Aree Wiboonpongse

Dr. Songsak Sriboonjitta MEMBER

Dr. Songsak Sriboonjitta

Pattana Jierwiriya MEMBER

Asst. Prof. Dr. Pattana Jierwiriya

Kanchana Chokethaworn MEMBER

Lecturer Kanchana Chokethaworn

August 2000

Copyright by the Graduate School, Chiang Mai University

ACKNOWLEDEMENT

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Aree Wiboonpongse, my academic advisor and chairman of thesis committee, whose kind advises and recommendation has guided my entire study program.

I also gratefully extend my thanks to Dr. Songsak Sriboonjit, thesis committee member, who has contributed his guidance and criticism in regression analysis. Grateful thanks are also stated to Asst. Prof. Dr. Pattana Jierwiriya-pant, thesis committee member, whose kind suggestion and idea has guided my way of cost analysis. I am also indebted and sincerely offer my gratitude thanks to Lecturer Phrek Gypmantasiri, Chairman of Agricultural System Program, who gave lectures on 'Case Study', which I had my first experience on a field survey.

With regard, gratefully thanks are also lengthened to Mrs. Kanya Amorntheerakul, a consul of Royal Thai Commercial Section in Kunming City, and her colleagues who provided transportation service and some information, which were completely necessary to my work. I am also very grateful to Mrs. Xuan Yi, Mr. Zhang Jinfeng, and Mr. Huang, senior students from my study program, who were my interpreters and advisors at the field survey in Kunming. I would like to extend my appreciation to all undergraduate students from Kunming University and some other colleges, who accompanied me at the field survey.

I also would like to affirm my curtsy to Mr. Ding Yuan Ming, a Plant Inspection Section Director and Senior Agronomist, who allowed me to interview and contributed some suggestions to the Thai mango exporters. I am very delighted to express my thankfulness to Mr. Zhang Xiao Ming, Deputy division Chief at Kunming Foreign Affairs and Overseas Chinese Affairs Office, who provided me a useful handbook of Kunming City. The special thanks are extended to Mr. Sun Zhi Qi, a manager at Import and Export Department of China Tushi Yunnan Tea Import and Export Corporation; Mrs. Gao Lian Sheng, a sales manager at Sakura Shopping Center; Mr. Frank, an assistant buyer at Kunming PriceSmart Commercial Co., Ltd.; Mr. Tian Jian, a supermarket department manager at Golden Dragon Department Store Co., Ltd.; and Mr. Prasert Meadsavatanimonkol, a general manager at Yunnan Banna Chia Tai Bio-Development Co., Ltd., who revealed some information about fruit market in Kunming.

The acknowledgement also goes to the Ford Foundation and Chiang Mai University for granting scholarship and thesis research fund.

Above all, I would like to express my specially regards and high respect to my family who energized and guided me not only my thesis, but also my entire study. Under their loves allow me to have success.

Thongjit Pongpiajun