Acknowledgement

There are many people to whom I wish to express my profound thanks for their invaluable help, contribution, sharing and sacrificing their time to my overall experiences during my graduate studies for M.S. in Agricultural System at Chiang Mai University.

My respectful acknowledgement and deepest thanks to my Ajarn, Dr. Methi Ekasingh, my supervisor and chairperson of my thesis examining committee for his continuous and immeasurable guidance, constructive comment and attentive not only in academic field but also training my personality. He sacrificed his valuable health and time because of communicating experiences, knowledge and dignity for me as a father. He is my admiration and pride as a good example for me in study and life.

I am greatly indebted to my co-advisors, Ajarn Assoc. Professor Dr. Benchaphun Ekasingh, Mr Chalernpol Samranpong for their great guidance, kindness, suggestion, comments and criticisms at every stage of my study. I would like to sincerely express my gratitude to Dr. Kanjana Chuenpichai for her critical comments and efforts in making me understand and improve my thesis.

I wish to record my grateful thanks and appreciation to all respected academic faculty members of the Agricultural Systems program for providing interesting and useful lectures. I also would like to express my thanks to Khun Woraluk, the Secretary of Multiple Cropping Center (MCC), Khun Tai for their special help and kindness. The GIS staffs of MCC (Ms Oa, Mr Watana, Mr Ton...) are thanked for their necessary helps.

Extremely great thanks go to the Ford Foundation for its financial support throughout my graduate study and thesis research.

My thanks are also expressed to the leaders and my colleagues of Faculty of Land and Resource Management, especially, Dr. Dao Thi Gon, Dean of Land Management Department, Mr Lam and my colleagues in University of Agriculture and Forestry of Hochiminh city for their kind helps. The thanks also go to, students of Land Management Department for their help during the field survey.

I thank very much farmers in Dinhquan district and local government for their cooperation in my interview and survey for kind and valuable help in field survey.

Grateful thanks and respect are also extended to all my nine classmates (“Aju” Mr Gurung, Koy, Pupae, Annie, Ball, O, anh Cuong, anh Hai, and anh Giang) and AGS friends for their substantial help, nice hospitality and for sharing their experience.

I do not know how much I may thank the old Vietnamese overseas in Chiangmai for their kindness and support.

Finally, and most of all, I owe my deepest thanks to my respectful parents (Mr Nguyen Ngoc Lan and Ms Nguyen Thi Le Hoa) for sacrificing their time, love, patience, continuously encouragement and supporting my educational advancement. This is the reward for my parents, especially, my mother who suffers many pains in her life. I was very grateful to my mother in law (Ms Nguyen Thi Hue) who is ready to love and sympathize me during my study time. Not any words can express my endless thankfulness to my parents. I am blessing with love, sympathy, encouragement of my husband, (Mr Ngo Van Binh) who is my great source of inspiration and dedication. Thanks are also due to my two younger sisters and my younger brother (Bao Chau, Chau Tien, and Ngoc Duy), brothers and sisters in law for their encouragements and helps. Despite the distance, my family is as “the wind beneath my wings” to encourage me to move forward whenever I am discouraged.
