To my mother, who always gives me her loves, inspiration, and supports.

During the time that I had studied and researched for finishing my thesis, there are many people such as my colleagues, my professors in Chiang Mai and Hue University, my parents, my family, and my friends, who had encouraged and helped me to reveal many problems relating to the thesis.

I am indebted to the Faculty of Architecture, Chiang Mai University (FACMU) for the generous financial support during my studies and for. Thank you also to every Ajarns in this faculty and the people of Thailand for helping me during the time I had been in Chiang Mai.

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks and gratitude to my thesis and academic advisor, Dr. Nawit Ongsawangchai, for all him support, encouragement and excellent supervision in the process of designing and writing this research paper. The Ajarn that I want to express my gratitude are Dr. Sethapong Sethabouppha, who are the first professors and also the advisors during the early time I had been studying in Chiang Mai University. Similarly, I am grateful to Dr. Apichoke Lekagul, Dr. Ekkachai Mahaek, and Dr. Sant Suwathcharapinun for invaluable guidance from start to end to complete this study. Thanks also go to Ms. Nattikarn Khammune for her kind helpfulness in every aspects on the procedure documents and administrative matter.

My deeply thanks go also to my friends I have in Chiang Mai; Mr. Patiparn Pomtongkom, Mr. Jack, and Mr. Chhay Karno, and other foreigner students coming from different countries such as Myanmar, Cambodia, and Laos.

I am particularly grateful to my mum, Mrs. Trinh Thi Hoa, my father, Mr. Nguyen Ngoc Thach, my younger brother, Mr. Nguyen Ngoc Trung, my uncles, Dr. Nguyen Sum and his family, and my close-friend. Miss. Tran Thi Thuy Huong, who
