ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This study was not produced in a vacuum. I have had the opportunity to interact with a large number of people in writing this dissertation. I am greatly indebted to all of them, without whom this study would have been impossible. My deepest gratitude is extended to my first supervisor, Dr. Chitrlada Burapharat, who supervised, inspired and motivated me throughout my study. I am grateful to Dr. Nopasit Chakpitak, Asst. Prof. Dr. Napat Harnpornchai and Lect. Dr. Komsak Meksamoot for their worthy guidance. I would like to express my deepest gratitude to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Chaiyan Ratchakul for his support and valuable advice. I also would like to extend my grateful thanks to my examiners, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Prasit Leelapan and Lect. Dr. Tirapot Chandarasupsang for graciously accepting my invitation to be a part of my dissertation.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. Chantana Ungchusak, Dr. Piyada Prasertsom, and every provincial team of the ‘Sweet Enough Network’ who gave me the opportunity to learn from their experiences.

I am indebted to the Faculty of Dentistry and Master of Public Health Program, Chiang Mai University for their financial support. I am also especially thankful to my colleagues in the Department of Family and Community Dentistry, Chiang Mai University, who enabled me to undertake a course of full-time study. Without them, I would not have had the valuable time to acquire this academic experience.

I would like to express my heartfelt appreciation to all of my friends and classmates, Gedganda Kongtawelear, Pitipong Yodmongkon, Acrapol Nimmolrat, Kemakorn Chaiprasit and Atit Patumvan, who provided support and encouragement throughout my study, especially when I felt disheartened.

I am highly indebted to Prof. M. Kevin O Carroll, Professor Emeritus of the University of Mississippi School of Dentistry, USA and Faculty Consultant at Chiang Mai University Faculty of Dentistry, Thailand, and Lecturer Kenneth Cullen, Former Lecturer at the College of Art, Media and Technology, Chiang Mai University, for their patience in editing my written language and for helping me to communicate my ideas in good academic English. I have learned a great deal about writing from both of them.

My special thanks to my husband, Dr. Pat Chatiketu, for his warm support and encouragement. Most of all, I wish to express my deepest gratitude to my mother, Darawan Chantarachotiwit, for constantly renewing my strength and blessing me very morning during my study.

Piyanart Chatiketu
